The Real Problem.
"Well, dear," said the young husband to his bride, "I'll make out the deposit slip in your name and all you have to do is to take it to the bank."
"Yes," she responded, "but suppose I want to draw out some money some day, how will they know which is my money?"—Harper's Bazar.

End of a Noted Folly.
The monocle has long since been out of fashion in England, and is soon to disappear from Paris, which has been its last stronghold. It was invented by a Dutch dandy, and its evil effects upon the eye were at once noted by oculists. The monocle first appeared at the congress of Vienna in 1814, when it was worn by its inventor. One folly, at least, has had only about a century of life.

Reason for Inquiry.
The following after-dinner story was related by Dr. Henry Churchill King, president of Oberlin college, before the Chicago Congregational club banquet:
"I was standing out in front of one of the big exposition buildings at the St. Louis fair, when a man came out of the building much the worse for liquor.
"What's the name of this here building?" he asked as he reeled away.
"I told him (the name of the building).
"Thanks," he said. "I was just in it and I wanted to check it off."

A DOCTOR'S SLEEP
Found He Had to Leave Off Coffee.

Many persons do not realize that a bad stomach will cause insomnia. Coffee and tea drinking being such an ancient and respectable form of habit, few realize that the drug—caffeine—contained in coffee and tea, is one of the principal causes of dyspepsia and nervous troubles.

Without their usual portion of coffee or tea, the caffeine tapers are nervous, irritable and fretful. That's the way with a whisky drinker. He has got to have his dram "to settle his nerves"—habit.

To leave off coffee or tea is an easy matter if you want to try it, because Postum gives a gentle but natural support to the nerves and does not contain any drug—nothing but food.

Physicians know this to be true, as one from Ga. writes:
"I have cured myself of a long-standing case of Nervous Dyspepsia by leaving off coffee and using Postum," says the doctor.

"I also enjoy refreshing sleep, to which I've been an utter stranger for 20 years.

"In treating dyspepsia in its various types, I find little trouble when I can induce patients to quit coffee and adopt Postum."

The Dr. is right and "there's a reason." Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum now comes in concentrated, powder form called Instant Postum. It is prepared by stirring a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water, adding sugar to taste, and enough cream to bring the color to golden brown.

Instant Postum is convenient; there's no waste; and the flavor is always uniform. Sold by grocers—50c cup tin 30 cts., 100-cup tin 50 cts.

An effort is being made to find out exactly how many of those veterans there are and where they are now residing in the state. The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle will be held there in July of next year, and arrangements are being made to have all those veterans of both sides present who took part in the battle.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Thirty-one opinions were handed down by division number two of the supreme court commission, eight of them being by Commissioner Brewer, twelve by Commissioner Harrison and thirteen by Commissioner Rosser. In the case of J. F. Welles, county treasurer, against Frank G. Audrain and others, the opinion being by Commissioner Rosser, the court held that the Act of Congress of May 27, 1908, was unconstitutional so far as it attempted to make Cherokee homesteads subject to taxation. The court also holds that Choctaw, Chickasaw and Creek homesteads are exempt from taxation, in line with former decisions handed down by the federal and supreme courts.

A hog belonging to J. A. MOOSE CHAIRMAN IS UNDER ARREST

ALVA McDONALD IS PLACED IN JAIL CHARGED WITH MURDER

QUARREL OVER FIFTY CENTS

F. T. Marsh, Prominent Leader in Socialist Party, Dies of Injuries Received in Fight

El Reno, Okla.—As the result of an altercation leading to blows, F. T. Marsh, socialist, and prominent El Reno attorney, is dead and Alva McDonald, state chairman of the progressive party, is in the Canadian county jail charged with murder. Marsh suffered a three-inch fracture of the skull above his left eye.

According to eye witnesses of the affair, McDonald was talking to an old soldier named Morris when Marsh appeared and asked to borrow 50 cents of Morris. Morris was handing the piece of money to Marsh, who is said to have been drinking, when McDonald asked if Morris owed Marsh this money. On receiving an answer in the negative it is said McDonald snatched the coin from Marsh's hand and handed it back to the old soldier, remarking to Marsh that he (Marsh) was the biggest thief in the country. It is said Marsh came back with a retort which led to blows and Marsh was knocked to the pavement.

Skull Fractured

While the blow itself was not damaging, it is thought Marsh's skull was fractured by striking against the pavement. Seeing that his opponent was hurt, McDonald picked him up and carried him into an open door close at hand. Chief of Police McCartney, happening along at this instant, assisted in starting to the police station with Marsh. Marsh, however, had recovered sufficiently from the shock to be able to walk to the police station where he bathed his own face and walked to a cell to lie down upon a bunk.

At the time it was not thought that he was injured, but an hour later, when McDonald returned with a brother of the injured man, they found him unconscious and his limbs cold. Alarmed, they removed him immediately to the hospital. He never regained consciousness.

Placed in Jail

On a warrant charging assault and battery, McDonald was arrested. Later the charge was changed to assault with intent to kill and his bond was raised to $1,500 which immediately was given. A third warrant, sworn to by a brother of the dead man, was served on McDonald, charging murder, and he was placed in the county jail.

McDonald is greatly distressed over the affair. He says he did not intend to injure Marsh, and after finding that he really was hurt, did everything he could for him. Sheriff C. O. Greer said that McDonald insisted on staying at the hospital with the injured man until physicians ordered him home to bed and accompanied him there in an automobile.

G. O. P. State Committee Meets

Oklahoma City—The republican state executive committee met here pursuant to a call by the chairman, Arthur H. Geissler of Oklahoma City. Two of the chief matters which the committee considered were the congressional contests filed against Congressman Dick T. Morgan and Bird McGuire by Judge J. J. Carney and J. J. Davis, and the alarming fact that the socialists have taken second place in twenty counties, and are claiming the minority membership of the election boards.

Prohis Lost Representation

Springfield, Ill.—Official figures show that Wilson's plurality in Illinois was 19,019, his total vote being 405,048. This is 224,844 less than the total vote for Taft in 1908 and 45,768 less than the vote for Bryan. Because they failed to poll the 2 per cent of vote at the election November 5, the prohibition and socialist labor parties cannot place any candidates in the field at the next primary in Illinois.

WOMEN SHOULD NEVER USE HARSH PHYSICS

Women are especially susceptible to constipation and their more delicate organisms rebel at the violence of cathartics and purgatives. Drastic medicines like salts, mineral waters, pills and powders may afford temporary relief, but their violent action on the stomach and bowels tends to upset the entire system.

A mild laxative is far preferable and more effective. The combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, and sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is ideal for women, being gentle in action, positive in effect and pleasant to the taste. A spoonful of Syrup Pepsin at night will bring natural relief next morning and, used regularly for a brief period, will so strengthen and tone the muscles of the stomach and bowels that there will be little, if any, further need for medicine.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be procured in any drug store. Your name and address on a postal to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 203 West St., Monticello, Ill., will bring a free trial bottle by return mail. Adv.
